

NCIUL

Tutors/Lecturers - to commence from January 2021 - Open until Filled

Faculty: Business and Management

Due to increased demand for our BA (Hons) in Global Management and International Business, NCIUL invites applications from outstanding candidates to fill the role of Tutors/Lecturers starting from January 2021. This an exciting opportunity to join NCIUL, a brand-new Higher Education company, based in London, offering Foundations, BA/BSc and MA/Msc courses in Psychology, Business, and International Relations. NCIUL became full-validated by our partner, The Open University, in 2018.

The tutor/lecturer will have overall responsibility to teach one or up to two courses:

- Principles of Business Law,
- Strategic Management,
- Global Business Planning,
- Corporate Responsibility & Ethics,
- Personal Development Planning.

About you:
Qualifications:	Have completed, or currently undertaking, a PhD in Management or similar. If not, strong evidence of independent learning and a strong understanding of the principles of computer science, as well as some related formal education. Fellowship of the Higher Education Academy is required.
Experience:	Experience in tutoring or teaching in a UK HE institution. Additionally, evidence of capability for independent learning of either new programming languages or modules is desirable.
Knowledge:	Solid understanding of Management theories, Strategic Management and/or Business Law.

NCIUL

Additional Skills:

Included, but not limited to, the ability to present information to groups verbally, and to guiding students through new concepts; excellent communication, consultative and interpersonal skills – for example, the role requires the tutor to help students with coding problems as they run into them, and to deal calmly with concerns and problems raised by students. Additionally, the tutor is expected to maintain a relaxed teaching atmosphere in which students are made to feel welcome and valued.

What we offer:

- Competitive salary
- Contract type: short, fixed-term contract with possibility of extension and permanent role
- Mon-Fri, 9am to 6pm
- Flexible work (office/home based)
- Offices in East London
- The opportunity to work with a dedicated team;
- A committed and established senior leadership team, with a focus on providing all staff with bespoke CPD;
- the support of enthusiastic and multi-skilled governors;

What you are required to submit to apply

- 1. A CV;
- 2. A covering letter which details your experience, strengths and potential in the requirements set out above;

Please, send an email to recruitment@nciul.ac.uk with your CV and the cover letter in PDF. Please ensure that you submit all documentation listed above or your application cannot proceed to the next stage.

If you are interested in this exciting opportunity please apply now, alternatively for more information please contact our HR agent Dr Saverio Angio' (hr@nciul.ac.uk) for a confidential conversation.

NCIUL is an equal opportunities employer. Job suitability is assessed on merit in accordance with the individual's skills, qualifications and abilities to perform the relevant duties required in a particular role.